Image Constellation 1 "One ROCK"

Fighting climate change is not only necessary it's also a little bit, well, cool. A tiny bit rock'n'roll. What, after all, is sexier than saving the planet? Saving the galaxy, perhaps, but let's save our rock first. And knock it up to 11 while we do it.

Image Constellation 2 "Our future, the planet's future"

Children. What do they know? The question should be what do they not know. They don't know ennui. They don't know fatigue. They don't know cynicism. They don't know an awful lot. That's what makes them (and their pictures) so refreshing...

Image Constellation 3 "Humankind: the maker, the doer, the problem solver"

Hopeless? Don't be daft. Human beings can do extraordinary things given the political will and the right wind behind them. Human history is replete with genius and invention. Let's pull our finger out and act!
